ORGANISATION: Lexical Lab

ADDRESS: 59 Seymour Road
Harringay
London
N8 0BJ

HEAD OF ORGANISATION: Mr Hugh Dellar and Mr Andrew Walkley

DATE OF INSPECTION: 5-6 July 2017

ACCREDITATION STATUS AT INSPECTION: Accredited

DECISION ON ACCREDITATION:

- Accreditation awarded for the full four-year period.
- Decision on accreditation deferred.
- Award of accreditation refused.

Date: 27 July 2017
PART A - INTRODUCTION

1. Background to the organisation

Lexical Lab Limited (the Provider) is a private company, limited by shares. It provides training and consultancy services.

The owners, who established and now run the company, are trainers and authors of English language training material. They offer short courses in the teaching and assessing of English and in language development. The courses take place in hired rooms at the Holloway Road campus of the London Metropolitan University. The courses started in July 2017.

The owners manage the administrative tasks and organise the marketing, including managing the social media. They have written the course materials and prepared the lessons. They undertake most of the teaching. A visiting guest lecturer contributes towards the teaching of assessment on one short course.

The planned courses complement the Provider’s consultancy work and publications on a teaching methodology termed Teaching Lexically, which the two owners have developed for the teaching of English.

2. Brief description of the current provision

The Provider offers six courses, which are designed for teachers of English. Some examples of the courses offered are, Teaching Lexically, which is focused on the Provider’s particular approach to teaching English, Advanced Language and Culture, which is aimed at developing teachers’ confidence and familiarity in current issues, key cultural and political figures and events in Britain and a course called English Boost, which is focused on enhancing speaking skills for teachers of English. In addition, other courses include Better Testing and Assessing, which is focused on the role of assessment in the teaching of English, Developing Materials course is to support the teaching of English and, finally, Basic English for Educators is an intensive English language course aimed at staff involved in education.

At the time of the inspection, two courses of ten days' duration were running entitled Teaching Lexically and Advanced Language and Culture. The 18 delegates attending the courses are all over the age of 18 and are teachers of English. Those attending the Teaching Lexically course were all from Central and Eastern Europe. The advanced course featured delegates from these areas as well as Spain and Brazil. All, except one, of the delegates are female.

3. Inspection process

The inspection was carried out by one inspector over one and a half days. The inspection included scrutinising documentation, meetings with delegates from each of the courses, meetings with the trainers who are also the managers and owners, a tour of the training venue and the observation of teaching and learning, which included a visit to a gallery. The staff cooperated very well with the inspection and the information required was clearly presented.
PART B - JUDGEMENT AND EVIDENCE

The following judgements and comments are based upon evidence seen by the inspector(s) during the inspection and from documentation provided by the provider.

INSPECTION AREA - MANAGEMENT, STAFFING AND ADMINISTRATION

1. The provider is effectively managed
   1.1 The management structure is clearly defined, documented and understood, including the role and extent of authority of any owners, trustees or governing body.
   1.2 The head of the provider and other senior managers are suitably qualified and experienced, understand their specific responsibilities and are effective in carrying them out.
   1.3 There are clear channels of communication between the management and staff and those working at the delivery venue/s.

   This standard is judged to be: ☒ Met ☐ Partially Met ☐ Not Met

   Comments
   The owners, who run the whole operation, are very experienced and well-qualified English language trainers with a good knowledge of the Information Technology (IT) systems, that they are using to run the business.

2. The administration of the provider is effective
   2.1 Administrators are suitably qualified or experienced and understand their specific responsibilities and duties.
   2.2 The size of the administrative team is sufficient to ensure the effective day-to-day running of the provider.
   2.3 The administrative support available to the management is clearly defined, documented and understood.
   2.4 Policies, procedures and systems are well documented and effectively disseminated across the provider.
   2.5 Data collection and collation systems are effective.
   2.6 Administrative offices are adequate in size and resources for the effective administration of the provider.

   This standard is judged to be: ☒ Met ☐ Partially Met ☐ Not Met

   Comments
   The two owners manage the appropriate administrative processes well and make effective use of electronic resources to support this. The administrative arrangements are suitable for the size of the operation. There are no plans to grow the business beyond the few summer schools, that they run.
3. The provider employs appropriate managerial and administrative staff

3.1 There are appropriate policies and effective procedures for the recruitment and continuing employment of suitably qualified and experienced staff.

3.2 Experience and qualifications claimed are verified before employment.

3.3 There is an effective system for regularly reviewing the performance of staff.

This standard is judged to be: ☐ Met ☐ Partially Met ☐ Not Met

Comments

3.1 3.2 The owners undertake the management and administration tasks. Therefore, they do not need systems to recruit staff. This means Key Indicators 3.1 and 3.2 are not applicable for this provider.

The owners are the only staff. Appropriate procedures are in place for reflecting on the performance of the courses and, therefore, the competence of the staff.

4. Publicity material, both printed and electronic, gives a comprehensive, up-to-date and accurate description of the provider and its programmes

4.1 Text and images provide an accurate depiction of the provider's location, premises, facilities and the range and nature of resources and services offered.

4.2 Information on the courses available is comprehensive, accurate and up to date.

This standard is judged to be: ☐ Met ☐ Partially Met ☐ Not Met

Comments

The website provides a clear, accurate and up-to-date description of the work of Lexical Lab and the courses available.

5. The provider takes reasonable care to recruit and enrol suitable participants for its courses

5.1 Entry requirements for each course, including those relating to language ability, are set at an appropriate level and clearly stated in the course descriptions seen by prospective participants.

5.2 A formal application process ensures that participants meet the entry requirements and any claimed qualifications are verified.

5.3 The provider replies to all application enquiries promptly and appropriately and briefs all stakeholders properly on the nature and requirements of its programmes.

5.4 Any overseas recruitment agents are properly selected, briefed, monitored and evaluated.

This standard is judged to be: ☐ Met ☐ Partially Met ☐ Not Met

Comments

Entry requirements are clearly stated on the website and on the Portable Document Format (PDF) forms, which set out the course content and are sent out to prospective delegates. Also included in the documentation is a useful summary that helps prospective delegates to reflect on the suitability of the course. It is likely that many of the delegates will be teachers, who have used the Lexical Lab materials and will be familiar with the methodology.
6. There is an appropriate policy on participant attendance and effective procedures and systems to enforce it

6.1 There is a clear and published policy on participant attendance and punctuality.
☐ Yes ☐ No

6.2 Accurate and secure records of attendance and punctuality at each session are kept for all participants, collated centrally and reviewed.
☐ Yes ☐ No ☐ NA

6.3 Participant absences are followed up promptly and appropriate action taken.
☐ Yes ☐ No

This standard is judged to be:
☐ Met ☐ Partially Met ☐ Not Met

Comments

The attendance requirements are clearly outlined in the Participant Handbook. Registers are kept for each session and non-attendance is effectively followed up.

7. The provider regularly obtains and records feedback from participants and other stakeholders and takes appropriate action where necessary

7.1 The provider has effective mechanisms for obtaining feedback from participants and other stakeholders (such as staff, partner providers and employers) on all aspects of the provider's provision, including formal participant representation where appropriate.
☐ Yes ☐ No

7.2 Feedback is obtained, recorded and analysed on a regular basis.
☐ Yes ☐ No

7.3 The feedback is reviewed by management and action is taken where necessary.
☐ Yes ☐ No

7.4 There is a mechanism for reporting on the provider's response to the feedback to the participant body.
☐ Yes ☐ No

This standard is judged to be:
☐ Met ☐ Partially Met ☐ Not Met

Comments

Appropriate plans are in place for obtaining feedback and a suitable form has been created. The form has not yet been used because the first courses have not yet finished. However, informal verbal feedback is being received throughout the course. The feedback so far has been very positive.

8. The provider has effective systems to review its own standards and assess its own performance with a view to continuing improvement

8.1 There are effective systems for monitoring and periodically reviewing all aspects of the provider’s performance.
☐ Yes ☐ No

8.2 Reports are compiled which present the results of the provider’s reviews and incorporate action plans.
☐ Yes ☐ No

8.3 Action plans are implemented and regularly reviewed.
☐ Yes ☐ No

This standard is judged to be:
☐ Met ☐ Partially Met ☐ Not Met

Comments

An appropriate quality assurance policy has been developed. This indicates clearly that the Provider has an ethos of providing high quality courses and makes reference to obtaining feedback from delegates. The owners, who are self-reflective teachers in their approach and are involved in ongoing professional development, have produced an appropriate self-assessment. During the first of their courses, they are reviewing progress through informal discussions and plan a formal review at the end of each summer school. This review will be minuted and any required action points will be established.
9. Programme management is effective

9.1 There is a suitably qualified and experienced programme manager or management team with responsibility for teaching, learning and assessment and the management of the body of trainers.
9.2 Classes are timetabled and rooms allocated appropriately for the courses offered.
9.3 The allocation of trainers to classes provides for a consistent learning experience and delivery is monitored to ensure consistency.
9.4 There is an appropriate policy and effective procedures for the acquisition of teaching and learning resources.

This standard is judged to be:
☐ Met  ☐ Partially Met  ☐ Not Met

Comments

The owners, who are also the trainers, are very experienced and have considerable expertise in English language teaching. The owners write and use their own teaching and learning resources.

10. The courses are planned and delivered in ways that enable participants to succeed

10.1 Courses are designed and delivered in ways that allow participants to develop the knowledge and skills which will be required for final examinations or assessments or which meet stakeholders' requirements.
10.2 Lessons and assessments maintain an appropriate focus on any assessment objectives or statement of learning outcomes established by the awarding body.
10.3 Formative assessments appropriately reflect the nature and standards of summative examinations.
10.4 Participants are encouraged and enabled to develop independent learning skills.
10.5 The academic backgrounds and particular needs of participants are taken into account in the classroom delivery of the course.

This standard is judged to be:
☐ Met  ☐ Partially Met  ☐ Not Met

Comments

The courses are very well planned to meet the needs of the delegates effectively. The delegates, who are English language teachers, value the practical guidance and tips that the course provides.
11. Trainers are suitable for the courses to which they are allocated and effective in delivering them

Comments

The trainers are well qualified, very experienced and have considerable expertise within English language teaching. The methodology, around which they have planned their courses, is based on a sound pedagogy. The trainers’ attendance and contribution to conferences, along with the research undertaken for the writing of their course books contributes towards their continual professional development.

The trainers employ very effective strategies to develop and check delegates understanding through very good use of questioning techniques. The training is of an excellent quality.

11.3 At this early stage of development of the Provider, lesson observations are not carried out.

12. The provider provides participants and trainers with access to appropriate resources and materials for study

This standard is judged to be: Met Partially Met Not Met

Comments

Delegates have access online to all the resources used in the courses. This includes the slides. These resources are highly regarded by the delegates.

INSPECTION AREA - PARTICIPANT WELFARE

17. Participants receive pastoral support appropriate to their age, background and circumstances

17.1 There is at least one named staff member responsible for participant welfare who is suitably trained, accessible to all participants and available to provide advice.

17.2 Participants receive appropriate advice before the start of the programme.

17.3 Participants receive an appropriate induction and relevant information at the start of the programme.

17.4 Participants are issued with a contact number for out-of-hours and emergency support.

17.5 The provider has policies in place to avoid discrimination and a published procedure for dealing with any abusive behaviour.

17.6 Effective safeguarding arrangements are in place and are regularly reviewed to keep all participants safe.

17.7 Effective arrangements are in place to protect participants from the risks associated with radicalisation and extremism.

This standard is judged to be: ☐ Met ☐ Partially Met ☐ Not Met

Comments

Participants are well cared for. The participant handbook includes appropriate guidance for delegates prior to starting the course and has a reference to an out-of-hours emergency number. Appropriate policies and procedures are in place that include avoiding discrimination and protecting delegates from extremism. The owners have undertaken an appropriate training course relating to mitigating the risks associated with radicalisation and extremism.
18. International participants are provided with specific advice and assistance

| 18.1 | International participants receive appropriate advice before their arrival on travelling to and staying in the UK. | Yes | No |
| 18.2 | International participants receive an appropriate induction upon arrival covering issues specific to the local area. | Yes | No |
| 18.3 | Information and advice specific to international participants continues to be available throughout the course of study. | Yes | No |
| 18.4 | Provision of support takes into account cultural and religious considerations. Where possible, participants have access to speakers of their own first language. | Yes | No |

This standard is judged to be:  ☐ Met  ☐ Partially Met  ☐ Not Met  ☐ NA

Comments

Although all the delegates have previously visited the United Kingdom (UK), they still value the information that they receive before the course starts. Much of the course content is focused on developing an appreciation of the culture in the UK.

19. The fair treatment of participants is ensured

| 19.1 | Participants apply for and are enrolled on courses under fair and transparent contractual terms and conditions. | Yes | No |
| 19.2 | Participants have access to a fair complaints procedure of which they are informed in writing at the start of the course. | Yes | No |

Comments

A social programme is included in the timetable for the short courses. Most of the activities are included in the cost of the course. The views of the delegates inform the planning of the social programme, for example, for some of the activities delegates were asked to vote on which of the choices they preferred. The social programmes provides a good opportunity to develop an awareness of cultural aspects of life in the UK.
INSPECTION AREA - PREMISES AND FACILITIES

23. The provider has secure possession of and access to its premises

23.1 The provider has secure tenure on its premises.

23.2 Where required, the provider has access to suitable external premises for training purposes of a temporary or occasional nature.

This standard is judged to be: ☐ Met ☐ Partially Met ☐ Not Met

Comments
A rental agreement is in place for the hire of rooms at the Holloway Road campus of the London Metropolitan University for teaching purposes.

24. The premises provide a safe, secure and clean environment for participants and staff

24.1 Access to the premises is appropriately restricted and secured.

24.2 The premises are maintained in an adequate state of repair, decoration and cleanliness.

24.3 There are specific safety rules in areas of particular hazard (e.g. science laboratories), made readily available to participants, staff and visitors.

24.4 General guidance on health and safety is made available to participants, staff and visitors.

24.5 There is adequate signage inside and outside of the premises and notice boards for the display of general information.

24.6 There is adequate circulation space for the number of participants and staff accommodated, and a suitable area in which to receive visitors.

24.7 There are toilet facilities of an appropriate number and level of cleanliness.

24.8 There is adequate heating and ventilation in all rooms.

This standard is judged to be: ☐ Met ☐ Partially Met ☐ Not Met

Comments
The university campus provides appropriate safe and secure accommodation, which is in an adequate state of repair, decoration and cleanliness. The induction includes health and safety issues.
25. Training rooms and other learning areas are appropriate for the courses offered

25.1 Training rooms and other learning areas provide adequate accommodation in size and number for the classes allocated to them.

RECOMMENDED AREAS FOR QUALITY IMPROVEMENT

The Provider is recommended to consider the introduction of lesson observations in order to ensure the high quality of the course delivery.
