PART A - INTRODUCTION

1. Background to the organisation

Wise Owl English Language Limited (Wise Owl/the Provider) was incorporated as a private limited company in July 2012. The current head of Wise Owl has been a director of the company for five years and is currently the sole company director. The Director is supported by a Director of Studies, who has oversight of teaching and learning.

Wise Owl was established with the objective of running junior English as a Foreign Language (EFL) summer schools.

Wise Owl changed the location for its 2014 summer school to Moffats School, Kinlet Hall in Shropshire. This is the current teaching venue. It is an English independent school during term time. Kinlet Hall offers teaching rooms, accommodation and spacious grounds for activities.

2. Brief description of the current provision

The Provider offers a programme which includes four weeks of intensive EFL teaching coupled with a variety of sporting and creative activities and excursions. The programme is aimed at participants who are aged 7 to 14 years. Course duration is of one to four weeks. The courses have a strong academic focus with 25 hours per week of EFL tuition.

The teaching is in classes that are arranged by English language ability. Class sizes are capped at 12 participants. Participants are tested every week and a report is made available to their parents. Participants receive an end of course certificate. All teaching, accommodation, meals, activities, excursions and transfers are included in the cost of the courses.

The Provider has grown its provision from seven students to the present 61 enrolments. Approximately half the current participants are from Europe and half from the rest of the world including a minority from China.

3. Inspection process

The re-accreditation inspection was carried out over two full days by one inspector. Four observations of teaching and learning and one observation of the afternoon activities took place. The inspector held discussions with the Director, the Director of Studies, boarding and activities staff, teaching staff and participants. The inspector scrutinised documentation, both electronic and in hard copy. Additional relevant documentation was made available on request. The Provider fully cooperated with the inspection process.

Attendance is carefully monitored by the pastoral staff and absences are followed up as a priority.

7. The provider regularly obtains and records feedback from participants and other stakeholders and takes appropriate action where necessary

Comments
Feedback is obtained informally and appropriately taken into account in course planning. Participants on one week courses are not asked for feedback early in the course, which would allow the Provider to identify and resolve any areas of concern at the earliest opportunity.

Many participants stay for the full four weeks of the summer school and many attend the summer school each year until they turn 15, often returning with friends, siblings or both. This is a measure of parents’ confidence in the summer school as a safe environment for their children.
