PART A – INTRODUCTION

1. Background to the institution

Danceworks (the Provider) is a privately-owned centre for dance and movement, which has been in operation since 1982. Danceworks is the trading name of a private limited company called Mont Meru Limited.

The philosophy of Danceworks is to offer affordable dance training to people of all ages, ability levels and backgrounds.

The sole proprietor of Danceworks is closely involved with the day-to-day running of the Provider and is supported by the General Manager, Finance Manager and Business Advisor. There is no governing body or trustees.

Danceworks is a member of the Conseil International De La Danse (CID) UNESCO, Paris which is an international professional organisation for all forms of dance in 170 countries.

Danceworks’ premises are located in Mayfair in central London and consist of seven dance studios, changing rooms and a members’ lounge. In addition to providing studios for dance classes, the studios are also used as rehearsal space for West End shows.

2. Brief description of the current provision

Danceworks offers the International Dance Visa Programme (IDVP), formerly known as the International Student Dancers Programme (ISDP). This is a bespoke, individually customised, programme of studies for individuals or groups of dancers aged 18 and over from around the world, at all levels of ability and experience. All teaching is carried out face-to-face.

Participants can enrol on the IDVP for a minimum of two weeks and a maximum of six months’ study on a continuous enrolment basis. Participants are able to select classes in Ballet, Street/Commercial dance, Contemporary/Jazz dance, Pilates/Barre, Singing/Musical Theatre, Tap, World dance, Fitness or Martial Arts.

The IDVP is designed to promote excellence and passion in dance teaching, offering participants the opportunity to work with dance professionals to aid their dance careers, express themselves and build their confidence and their curriculum vitae. Participants are allocated mentors who work with them and the IDVP Coordinator to produce a bespoke schedule of classes selected from the Danceworks’ timetable. The selection of a minimum of ten appropriate classes per week is determined by the level and ability of the participant.

The IDVP provides participants with a course of study tailored to their abilities, from beginner to professional level. Participants are required to provide information about their level, including video evidence, upon application, and then Danceworks and its trainers propose a schedule of classes suited to the individual’s abilities.

BAC accreditation only covers the department which delivers the IDVP.

At the time of the inspection, one female participant from the Czech Republic was attending the programme. The Provider can cater for up to ten participants at any one time.
3. Inspection process

The inspection was carried out over one day by one inspector. Meetings were held with the General Manager, the Reception Manager and the IDVP Coordinator. Interviews were held with the participant on the IDVP, the participant’s mentor and another teacher. Two classes in which the IDVP participant participated, were observed. These were a Classical Ballet Professional Level and a General Level Contemporary Dance class. A range of documentation was also scrutinised in hard copy and online. The management team at Danceworks co-operated fully with the inspection.

The owner meets with the General Manager, the Finance Manager, the Business Advisor and relevant consultants every six to eight weeks. The meetings are recorded and archived by the Proprietor. Action points are developed at each meeting and are actioned appropriately by the General Manager.

An end-of-day log is completed twice a day. This is circulated through a shared e-mail to all management and administration staff. The log contains information about complaints, accidents and problems with staffing or studios. The logs also contain action points for members of staff, which are confirmed as actioned by the relevant member of staff through the shared e-mail. Maintenance and cleaning staff maintain their own log books. The logs are archived by the Studio Manager.

Policies, procedures and systems are well documented and effectively disseminated across the Provider. Danceworks has introduced a separate software programme for the IDVP which is only open to participants, their mentors and teachers, the management team and the IDVP Coordinator. The IDVP offers a bespoke programme of studies from beginner to professional ability levels in dance. A high level of English language ability is not required for the IDVP as trainers use demonstration to teach participants. Translators can also be arranged for students and English lessons can also be provided.

Danceworks has created an exclusive e-mail address for the IDVP and this is checked on a daily basis, with responses being made in a timely manner.

6.3 Participant absences are followed up promptly and appropriate action taken. ☒ Yes ☐ No ☐ NA

This standard is judged to be: ☒ Met ☐ Partially Met ☐ Not Met

Comments
The student handbook contains a clear policy on participant attendance and punctuality. Participants sign an attendance register for the IDVP when entering and leaving the Danceworks’ premises.

Participants on the IDVP are required to sign in and out of Danceworks. Participant attendance is also recorded on a daily record, a software programme which is completed by participants, teachers and mentors on a daily basis. The IDVP Coordinator follows up absences when she is notified that the participant has not arrived for class.

7. The provider regularly obtains and records feedback from participants and other stakeholders and takes appropriate action where necessary

7.3 The feedback is reviewed by management and action is taken where necessary. ☒ Yes ☐ No

7.4 There is a mechanism for reporting on the provider’s response to the feedback to the participant body. ☐ Yes ☐ No ☒ NA

This standard is judged to be: ☒ Met ☐ Partially Met ☐ Not Met

Comments
Feedback is obtained from participants and mentors on an ongoing basis through the daily record. The record is shared by the participants and members of the management and teaching teams. The management responds to feedback by making adjustments to the IDVP while it is in progress, for example, altering the timetable and providing additional classes.
At the time of the inspection, Danceworks was delivering the IDVP to its first participant. The Provider will introduce a mechanism for responding to the feedback of its participants when the programme of studies is more established.

Management meetings are held weekly. An agenda is created with standardised areas for discussion, which refer to information on the end-of-day logs. Action points are decided, allocated and reviewed. Minutes of meetings are circulated to attendees by e-mail. Action points that have not been addressed will be revisited at subsequent meetings until they are resolved.

Communication between the staff at Danceworks is appropriate and comprehensive. The Provider is highly responsive to feedback on its provision, ensuring that improvement is immediate and ongoing.

Comments

The Provider has an experienced, well established management team. Classes are selected from a timetable of 120 classes per week to create a bespoke programme of studies through discussion with the participant, the management team and the participants’ mentor. The participants review the planned programme to ensure it is suited to their needs before it is implemented.

All resources for the IDVP are provided by Danceworks. Trainers inform the General Manager if they require additional resources for their classes.

This standard is judged to be: ☒ Met ☐ Partially Met ☐ Not Met

Comments

No final examinations or assessments are held for the IDVP. Participants receive a certificate of completion at the end of their studies.

The mentor and participants work in collaboration with the IDVP Coordinator to produce a work schedule and a list of expected outcomes, all of which are approved by all parties in advance of the participants’ arrival at Danceworks. Tuition is offered through one-to-one individual meetings, peer sessions, online video reviews, research and self-study. Participants study for 15 hours per week. The participant attending the IDVP informed the inspector that her mentor had created two new videoed choreographies for her and that she had also been entered for a competition, called BBC Young Dancer of the Year. She had also performed at London Fashion Week.

Comments

The trainers at Danceworks are well-qualified, experienced professional dancers. At the time of the inspection, Danceworks was delivering its first programme of studies delivered by experienced dance teachers.

11.3 The Provider does not have an appraisal procedure incorporating regular classroom observations.

11.5 Two classes were observed by the inspector. No lesson plans were produced for either class as they are normally offered as drop-in classes to members of the public.
The participant was engaged and participated fully during the two lessons observed by the inspector. The dance teachers used a range of appropriate strategies to ensure understanding, for example, demonstrating the movements required to successfully complete the dance sequences being studied. The teacher also gave good support throughout, positioning the participant’s body to meet the requirements of the steps and movement being taught, while asking the participant concept checking questions to assess her understanding.

Due to the current small size of the Provider, mentors are not allocated a specific number of hours to cover the time spent liaising with the participants.

12. The provider provides participants and trainers with access to appropriate resources and materials for study

This standard is judged to be: ☒ Met ☐ Partially Met ☐ Not Met

Comments

Danceworks provides all the resources and materials for the IDVP, including books and Digital Video Discs (DVDs) on dance. In addition, the participants have access to the studios for rehearsals outside class times.

| 13.6 Participants have appropriate access to trainers outside class time. | ☒ Yes ☐ No ☐ NA |

This standard is judged to be: ☒ Met ☐ Partially Met ☐ Not Met

Comments

The participants as well as the management and teaching teams share a comprehensive software programme to monitor the participants’ progress. Information about the participants’ attendance and daily activities is added to the programme. The participants, mentor and trainers also add detailed information about the classes the participants have attended and additional classes are provided if required.

Prior to attending the IDVP, participants are allocated a mentor who is also a dance teacher at Danceworks. During interviews with the General Manager, it was confirmed that the present participant’s progress had exceeded the IDVP’s expectations. In response, the teaching staff were preparing her for entry into the BBC Young Dancer of the Year competition.

During an interview with the inspector, the participant confirmed that she had received good support from the IDVP Coordinator and that she was provided with the contact details of the General Manager and her mentor when she enrolled for the IDVP.
The Provider offers support that is tailored to meet the needs of its participants. The mentors are able to build a close working relationship with participants and are able to adapt the IDVP to offer extra support for participants who are not making the required progress. They are also able to offer further opportunities to participants who have exceeded the requirements of the programme.

Due to the current small size of the Provider, only one mentor is currently used on the IDVP.

The student handbook contains appropriate information about the support provided by the staff at Danceworks.

The access to the premises is through the main entrance, which is monitored by reception staff.

The premises are fit-for-purpose and in a suitable state of repair, with an ongoing programme of maintenance and refurbishment. Studios are checked after each class and the premises are professionally cleaned at regular intervals during the day to ensure appropriate levels of hygiene are maintained.

Health and safety training is completed by all staff, with dates of completion being recorded by the Reception Manager. The reception protocol and policy file contains all policies and procedures. The Reception Manager e-mails the relevant parts of the file to individual staff members and they confirm by e-mail that they have read the e-mail’s content.

General guidance on health and safety is available to participants and visitors and is displayed in the reception area.

There are sufficient, well positioned noticeboards. These display good information about the classes and teachers at Danceworks.

Comments

IDVP participants are not required to undertake private study. Trainers do not prepare classes on site and there is no written work to be marked.

Wireless internet access is available throughout the building for the use of staff, participants and members of the public attending the classes.

Danceworks has a small snack shop on the ground floor of the building and there is convenient access, in the surrounding area, to a wide range of outlets for purchasing food and drink and for relaxation. There is a small members’ area in the basement of the building where individuals attending the classes can relax and consume food and drink.

Individuals attending the classes take their personal belongings into the studios during classes.

The administrative offices are on the first floor of the building and consist of two offices. These are the General Manager’s office and a larger shared office with seating for three staff. The administrative offices are adequate in size and resources for the size of the organisation. All administrative offices are accessible to the participants attending classes at Danceworks.

RECOMMENDED AREAS FOR IMPROVEMENT

To be reviewed at the next inspection

It is recommended that, as the IDVP grows in size, mentors should be allocated a number of hours to cover the time spent liaising with the participants.

It is recommended that a greater number of mentors should be used on the IDVP to ensure that the other roles mentors have are not negatively impacted by their commitment to the IDVP.
