Member of the Audit Committee (non-trustee member)

The British Accreditation Council for Independent Further and Higher Education (BAC) seeks to appoint an expert non-trustee member of the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee is a standing committee of the Board of Trustees (the Council) and reports to the Council regularly. It is chaired by the honorary treasurer and includes three other trustees. The Committee has the council's authority to monitor BAC's financial performance and that it is keeping to all legislation and regulations that apply. (Click here for the Terms of Reference.)

We are looking for a fully qualified accountant with at least 3 years of professional experience to join the Audit Committee as a non-trustee member. Ideally you will also have experience of charity governance and/or in the education and training industry.

Location: The Audit Committee ordinarily meets online. The head office is based in London.

Time commitment: The Committee meet online three times a year with each meeting typically lasting one to two hours. You may from time to time be invited to occasional miscellaneous events and our Annual Stakeholder Event, but attendance is not mandatory.

Voluntary: While there is no remuneration for this role, reasonable expenses are paid.

Please send your CV along with an expression of interest addressing your reasons for applying and how you meet the following criteria:

- Fully qualified accountant with at least 3 years of professional experience
- Previous experience as a trustee or governor (or similar board level) of a UK charity or public body
- Knowledge of, or experience in, independent further or higher education/training providers

Please send to Lucy Fox, Governance and Business Development Manager (lucy.fox@the-bac.org) by Thursday 31 March 2023.

We aim for the appointment to be formally concluded by the Council meeting in June 2023 for commencement of the role from 1 September 2023.

About BAC

BAC was founded in 1984, adapting over the years to regulatory changes, and today BAC has a key role in accrediting independent higher and further education and training providers and supporting the short-term study visa regulatory framework. Internationally, BAC continues to see increasing demand for its accreditation activities. As a charitable institution, BAC has specific responsibilities to meet its charitable objectives.
